

REACH Bangladesh: Multi-sector implementation rationalizes overlapping nutrition initiatives

Planning document	Period covered ¹	Key entities involved	Remarks
 National Plan of Action for Children—Bangladesh	2004-09	Ministry of Women and Children's Affairs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Partial overlap with REACH/PLB interventions
 Bangladesh: Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper	2005	IMF	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Partial overlap with REACH/PLB interventions
 UN Development Assistance Framework (UNDAF)	2005-11	UN Country Team	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Partial overlap with REACH/PLB interventions; Currently under draft for 2012-2016
 Bangladesh Country Assistance Strategy	2006-09	World Bank, ADB, DFID, JICA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Partial overlap with REACH/PLB activities
 Infant and Young Child Feeding Strategy
 National Health Policy	2009	MOHFW World Health Organization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Coherent health strategy for Bangladesh 4th of 15 goals is to reduce malnutrition
 National Guideline for the Management of Severely Malnourished Children in Bangladesh	2008	IPHN, DG Health, MOHFW ³ , UNICEF, WHO
 National Strategy for Anemia Prevention and Control in Bangladesh	2007	IPHN, MOHFW ³	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> REACH/PLB interventions partly covered in its priority interventions
 National Guidelines for Vitamin A Program in Bangladesh	2008	IPHN, DG Health, MOHFW ³	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Vitamin A supplementation: REACH/PLB overlap
 National Food Policy and Plan of Action 2008-2015	2008-15	Government of Bangladesh, FPMU ⁴ MOFDM; USAID	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Significant overlap with REACH/PLB interventions Promotes GO/NGO–private sector collaboration
 National Nutrition Plan of Action	1997	Government of Bangladesh BNNC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strong overlap with REACH/PLB interventions